

What Lies Beneath

The midnight moon is keeping you awake

The freezing cold - it hurts night after night

The pain won't leave, you're bleeding memories

Until birth of decay

I am the sea

You never know what lies beneath

Don't try to breathe

When the waves collide

When you drown in me

As blackened rain I come

When you try to hide from me

Drop by drop it's hurting you

Like a fucking bullet storm

I am the sea

You never know what lies beneath

You cannot breathe

When the waves collide

When you drown in me

I fill your lungs

Pull you down

No air in darkness

You are reborn

Calm is the air

Still is the sea

Hear the silence

Enjoy the agony
